

GLOBALWA

CHANGING LIVES.
CREATING OPPORTUNITY.

Global Washington is a broad-based membership association that promotes and supports the global development sector in the state of Washington. Global Washington convenes, strengthens, and advocates across key global development issues, generating new opportunities for growth for our members.

“The key opportunity that we are seeing is the convergence around common purpose.”

– Chris Elias, President & CEO, PATH

Join Global Washington today!

Our vision is for the state of Washington to be a recognized center of influential and innovative global development activity. Global Washington is composed of over 150 members including leading businesses, large and small nonprofits, foundations, academic institutions, and individuals. Our members work collectively to build a more equitable and prosperous world.

As a member you will:

- » Gain more visibility for your work
- » Connect to over 150 like-minded organizations working in Global Education, Global Health, Environmental Sustainability and Poverty Alleviation
- » Access a multitude of useful resources and capacity building trainings
- » Add your voice to our advocacy work for collective impact

More member activities and opportunities:

Convene

Global Washington is a convening body with well-attended annual conferences, policy events, and initiatives offering opportunities for networking and partnership-building.

Global Washington frequently hosts events centered on key issues or regions of the world and engages with businesses to support public-private partnerships.

Global Washington supports a directory and mapping tool on our website, and we provide a monthly newsletter, events calendar, and social media communications with our members and the greater community.

Strengthen

Global Washington strengthens member organizations to increase their impact by offering capacity building workshops, providing promotional opportunities, and creating a strong climate in the state for funding and jobs in the development sector.

Global Washington directs the Careers in Development Center with job postings, academic resources, and job profiles from around the state.

Global Washington provides a clearinghouse of resources and publishes research and reports on issues relevant to the sector and at the same time supports fundraising efforts of our members.

Advocate

Global Washington is a state and international leader, promoting collaboration across diverse sectors, including business, education and global development.

Global Washington supports public relations campaigns to highlight our members and demonstrate the important connection between Washington State business and international development.

Global Washington builds a collective voice around Foreign Aid Reform and other policies that impact the international development community.

“Global Washington is holding us accountable in Washington, DC. They’re making sure that the very small amount of money that we spend in this area is being spent efficiently and they’re making sure that we get the maximum amount for the dollars that America does invest. This is about solving problems so larger problems aren’t created in the future. And Global Washington is a cutting-edge organization helping us do that.”

– Senator Maria Cantwell

Membership

To join Global Washington you must have an office or staff in the state of Washington, have projects in the developing world (relief or aid), and/or provide technical assistance to organizations that have projects in the developing world.

Global Washington has five membership levels to choose from: Advocate, Supporting, Leadership, Champion and Giving Circle.

We encourage members to join at a level that best matches their budgets, programming needs, and desired level of support for Global Washington. For a full listing of benefits by membership level visit our website at <http://globalwa.org/our-community/join/>.

The benefits increase at each level. Some examples include:

- » Access to programs at member prices (educational seminars, trainings, and peer networking opportunities)
- » Showcasing your work in public relations and media campaigns
- » Promotion at public-private partnership events
- » An invitation to join the Global Washington Advisory Board

The easiest way to become a member is online at <http://globalwa.org/our-community/join/>. If you prefer, please complete this form and return to Global Washington, 500 Union Street, Suite 801, Seattle, WA 98101.
