

65th Annual United Nations Day

presented by The United Nations Association of Greater Seattle

October 24, 2010 * 5:30pm, St. Mark's Cathedral

www.unaseattle.org/un-day-2010

The United Nations' Millennium Development Goals: Engaging America

* DINNER * SPEAKERS * ENTERTAINMENT *

~ 2010 UNA Humanitarian Award to Mr. William H. Gates, Sr. ~

Moderator:

Rick Steves operates Europe Through the Back Door where he produces over 50 guidebooks on European travel, the most popular travel series in America on public television, a weekly hour-long national public radio show, and a weekly column syndicated by the Chicago Tribune. "A global ethic means community action." Travel as a Political Act by Rick Steves. www.ricksteves.com

2010 Humanitarian Award Recipient:

William H. Gates Sr. directed the William H. Gates Foundation, established in 1994. They merged in 2000 with the Gates Learning Foundation to create the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. A lifelong activist for human rights, Mr. Gates has been honored for his achievements in the legal profession. He leads the Foundation in efforts to reduce suffering throughout the world. www.gatesfoundation.org

Featured Speakers:

Dr. Stephen Gloyd is a UW professor of Global Health as well as adjunct professor of Epidemiology, Family Medicine and Evans School of Public Affairs. He is also Executive Director of Seattle-based Health Alliance International (HAI) that provides support for ministries of health in Mozambique, Ivory Coast, Sudan and East Timor. www.healthallianceinternational.org

Entertainment:

Andre Feriante is an award-winning virtuoso guitarist. His performance program represents a bold but fluid musical fusion, featuring music from Bach to Leonard Cohen, flamenco improvisation to jazz standards, and even poetry by Federico Garcia Lorca, Rumi and Feriante himself. www.andreferiante.com

Tim Hanstad has more than 20 years of experience in project management, consulting, and policy advocacy on issues of expanding land access, improving land tenure security, and developing land markets for poverty alleviation and economic growth in developing countries. Tim is president and CEO of the Rural Development Institute in Seattle. www.rdiland.org

Gansango Music & Dance draws on the stunning talent of a multicultural group of international dancers and musicians presenting traditional and contemporary dance and music from Africa. Gansango performances fuse music and movement from across the African continent. www.gansango.com

The program and dinner will be held in Bloedel Hall in St. Mark's Cathedral located at 1245 10th Ave. East, Seattle.
For information and directions visit www.saintmarks.org or call 206.323.0300.

Ticket Levels: $65 General, $100 Sponsor, $500 Ambassador *additional donations accepted, processing fees applied

Purchase tickets online at: brownpapertickets.com/event/131710 or by calling 1-800-838-3006
Limited seats available.

WWW.UNASEATTLE.ORG
CHECK US OUT ONLINE!

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

United Nations Association of Greater Seattle
PO Box 85682
Seattle, WA 98145-1682
206-568-1959
info@unaseattle.org

Bringing the World to Your Doorstep

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

Membership is one of the simplest and most affordable ways to be informed and stay connected to your local United Nations Association chapter.

Please become a member or renew your membership with UNA of Greater Seattle and join a movement of Americans who support responsible global leadership and a strong UN!

Learn more at www.unaseattle.org/join

65th Annual United Nations Day

presented by The United Nations Association of Greater Seattle

October 24, 2010 * 5:30pm, St. Mark's Cathedral

www.unaseattle.org/un-day-2010

The United Nations officially came into existence on 24 October 1945, when the Charter had been ratified by China, France, the Soviet Union, the United Kingdom, the United States and a majority of other signatories. United Nations Day is celebrated on 24 October each year.