

GLOBALWA

The 2017 Global Washington conference theme is Renewing Global Leadership – Sessions will highlight the economic, political and cultural impact of globalization in developing countries, as well as the growing need for leaders to adapt to this evolving global landscape.

This year's Fast Pitch is an opportunity to introduce people to your organization and to talk about your own unique approach to leadership.

Fast Pitch Application

What does a Global Leader look like?

Applications are open to current Global Washington members only. You must register for the conference in order to participate.

Presenter Name and Title:	Presenter Email and Phone:
Presenting Organization:	Title of Presentation:
How do you define a successful global leader?
How does your organization seek out and empower these types of leaders or support the environment where positive leadership can thrive – Whether within your organization or in the communities where you work?

Questions? Contact Andie Long, Director of Communications.

Please send your completed application to andie@globalwa.org.
DEADLINE: ~~September 30, 2017~~ (Extended to Friday, October 6th)